

Summer school “Economic, social and cultural rights of migrant children in the European Union”

Jean Monnet Module MARS
Online training course
22-24 & 27-30 June 2022

Who can apply

The Summer School is designed for professionals (such as public officers, lawyers, consultants, legal operators, social workers, guardians); academics, Ph.D. students and students with a general knowledge of the matter and intending to upgrade their knowledge and competences.

.....

Learning objectives

Participants will acquire:

- an advanced insight on the international and EU law on migrant children's rights;
- a practical and immediately applicable knowledge on the economic, social, cultural rights of migrant children;
- in-depth knowledge of the EU Pact on Migration and Asylum, the EU Strategy on the Rights of the Child, the Child Guarantee and the Council of Europe Strategy for the Rights of the Child (2022-2027) will be discussed providing participants with all the relevant teaching materials (regulations, case-law, reports, etc.).

.....

Aims

The Summer School offers specific expertise on the economic, social and cultural rights of migrant children.

This course endorses a strong interdisciplinary approach to migration and focuses on the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights and the Court of Justice of the European Union as well as on the current challenges for the protection of migrant children's rights.

.....

Sessions

The first session (22-24 June 2022) provides a strong theoretical understanding of the socio-economic and cultural rights of migrant children in international and EU law, including a focus on the right to development and migrant children's health, social assistance and housing.

The second session (27-30 June 2022) provides practical knowledge and expertise of the socio-economic and cultural rights of migrant children, focusing on migrant children's vulnerability, social and economic discrimination, prohibition of labour exploitation, trafficking and smuggling and migrant children's right to education and religion.

The agenda of the course is available here

“EACH CHILD HAS THE RIGHT TO AN ADEQUATE STANDARD OF LIVING, AND TO EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES, FROM THE EARLIEST STAGE OF LIFE”.
EU STRATEGY ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD, 2021-2024

.....

Work plan

The Course will be held online for a total amount of 40 hours of training. Each day is composed of 6 hours of lessons (9:00-13:00 and 14:00-16:00), except for the last day that is composed of 4 hours of lessons (9:00-13:00). Case studies sessions and Q&A sessions are planned in order to stimulate the exchanges between trainers and trainees, promoting the creation of a network among all participants. At the end of the Course participants will receive certificate of attendance and the acknowledgement of 2 European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS)

.....

APPLICATION

The enrolment application is to be received by 13th June 2022 and is to be submitted exclusively online by registering at this link. The Course tuition fee amounts to € 200 and includes the attendance of all lectures and the teaching material.

For those who have already attended previous training courses organized by the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna in the framework of the Jean Monnet Module MARS, the fee amounts to € 150. In any case, an early bird discount is reserved to candidates applying before 31st May 2022. For early birds, the course fee is € 150.

Moreover, there is an exemption from enrolment fees for No. 7 foreign students who are international protection holders, in consideration of the Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies adherence to the UNHCR Manifesto of Inclusive University. The exemption will be granted on the basis of the chronological order of registration.

Final Conference and Call for Papers

The Final Conference Fundamental Rights of Migrant Children in the EU: Current Challenges and Opportunities will convene in Pisa, at Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies, and online on 11th July 2022.

The Conference is organized at the end of the three years MARS Jean Monnet Module to shed light on the persisting and emerging challenges to migrant children's rights in the EU as well as to highlight opportunities to promote their protection and full inclusion in host societies.

The Conference is also an opportunity to develop a network amongst experts, practitioners, students and people who are willing to work in the field of the protection of migrant children's rights.

Conference call for papers is open regarding 4 interrelated topics:

1. Migrant children stranded at the EU border;
2. Migrant children's vulnerability and Covid-19 pandemic;
3. Migrant children's integration in the EU;
4. Migrant children, environment and climate change.

Deadline: 18th June 2022

Have a look at the call for more info!

See also the DREAM research area website

Scientific Committee

Karolína Babická (ICJ), Francesca Biondi Dal Monte (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies), Anna Brambilla (ASGI), Massimo Frigo (ICJ), Giuseppe Martinico (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies), Emanuele Rossi (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies).

Contacts

Organization: Francesca Biondi Dal Monte
francesca.biondi@santannapisa.it
Administration Office: Paola Tenconi
altaformazione@santannapisa.it
Phone number: + 39 050 882661

Summer School “Economic, social and cultural rights of migrant children in the European Union” Jean Monnet Module MARS

First session: 22-24 June 2022

The ESC rights of migrant children in international and EU law; Right to health, social assistance, development, housing and to a healthy environment; Freedom from hunger and poverty; Policies and best practices to promote migrant children's rights.

Second session: 27-30 June 2022

The protection of migrant children against exploitation, trafficking and smuggling; International redress mechanisms; Education, culture and religion of migrant children; Children's rights in the digital environment.

Call for Papers

Final Conference Fundamental Rights of Migrant Children in the EU: Current Challenges and Opportunities
11 July 2022